Why you want to serve on a city board or commission:

I'm interested in providing guidance and support to the animal shelter and residents in my community. The animal shelter continues to struggle with finding adequate placement for the overwhelming population of homeless animals. Where as our community lacks the needed resources and knowledge to provides sufficient care for owned animals. I am devoted to our city. I want to help residents keep their animals, become responsible animal owners, and ultimately save the lives of our shelter animals.

What do you consider to be three (3) major assets that would qualify you for selection to this board, commission, or citizen advisory committee:

1. Animal welfare professional with experience working in our community.
2. Strong passion to help residents and animals in our community.
3. Positive connections with shelter and animal rescue community.

Experience or special knowledge pertaining to area(s) of interest:

Animal welfare professional with experience working in the city to resolve animal related issues and concerns.

Educational background:

Bachelor of Science in Applied Management.

Occupational experience:

I'm currently the Animal Services Supervisor for the City of Redlands Animal Shelter. I manage the entire operation of the animal shelter and field services. I also network with volunteers and rescue partners to find placement for shelter animals. While employed with the City of San Bernardino as an Animal Control Officer and as a Supervisor I worked closely with residents both inside and outside of the shelter. I helped to bridge a connection between the community and the department. As a Field Supervisor for Franklin County Animal Care and Control I supervised a large enforcement staff including animal control officers and dispatchers. I worked to provide education to our residents; strengthen partnerships and saving lives of shelter animals.

Professional or technical organization memberships:

NACA(National Animal Care & Control Association)
CalAnimals
Prior member of Ohio Dog Warden Association

Civic or community experience, memberships, or previous public service appointments:
